

When will next year's edition be available?

Every January the California DMV issues a new edition of the California Driver Handbook. As soon as they do we go to work revising and rewriting our entire program to synchronize with it. This process takes us 4-6 weeks. Our newest edition is usually available for shipment sometime between the end of February and mid-March of each year.